End Semester Examination- Pattern 1 UHV-III 06 OCT 2026

Course Name - Universal Human Values
Course Code- 25MCAVEC301
Maximum Marks- 30
All Question are Compulsory

Semester- III
Date- 06/10/2026
Time- 1hr

Assume Suitable data wherever required

Q1	Attempt all Questions	Marks Max	Course Outcome	RBT Level
A	The main purpose of self-exploration is to: a) Compare oneself with others b) Understand oneself through reflection and verification c) Gain social approval d) Memorize definitions	1M	CO1	L1
B	Experiential validation means: a) Accepting a statement because an authority says so b) Verifying an understanding through one's own experience c) Rejecting all values d) Following tradition without questioning	1M	CO1	L2
C	Harmony in the Self is associated with: a) Contradictory desires b) Right understanding and inner balance c) Physical strength only d) External success only	1M	CO2	L1
D	Self-regulation helps a person to: a) Control others b) Regulate thoughts and behaviour in accordance with right understanding c) Avoid relationships d) Increase physical possessions	1M	CO2	L2
E	Respect means: a) Evaluating people only by their achievements b) Right recognition of the other person c) Fear of authority d) Agreeing with everyone	1M	CO3	L1
F	Which statement correctly distinguishes intention and competence? a) Intention is ability; competence is desire b) Intention is what one wants to do; competence is ability to do it c) Both mean the same d) Neither affects relationships	1M	CO3	L2

St. John College of Engineering & Management ★ SJCEM PALGHAR

G	The interconnection of human life and nature highlights: a) Mutual dependence b) Human dominance only c) Separation from nature d) Unlimited exploitation	1M	CO4	L1
H	Sustainability requires: a) Unlimited resource use b) Responsible use and regeneration of resources c) Ignoring future generations d) Maximum consumption	1M	CO4	L2
I	Professional competence should be supported by: a) Ethical conduct and character b) Competition alone c) Profit alone d) Popularity	1M	CO5	L1
J	Social responsibility of professionals involves: a) Considering only personal benefit b) Considering the impact of professional actions on society c) Avoiding accountability d) Ignoring environmental effects	1M	CO5	L2
K	Holistic living seeks harmony at: a) One level only b) Multiple levels of human existence c) Workplace only d) Family only	1M	CO6	L1
L	Human excellence can be developed through: a) Right understanding and responsible conduct b) Material accumulation alone c) Competition alone d) Avoiding self-reflection	1M	CO6	L2
Q2a	What is self-exploration? Explain its role in the process of self-evolution.	3M	CO1	L2
	or
Q2b	A person accepts a career choice only because of family pressure. Apply natural acceptance and experiential validation to examine this decision.	3M	CO1	L3
Q3a	Explain human aspirations and the concept of harmony in the Self.	3M	CO2	L2
	or
Q3b	A student spends excessive time on physical comforts but remains mentally dissatisfied. Analyze the issue using physical and mental needs.	3M	CO2	L3
Q4a	Explain the meaning of respect and its significance in human relationships.	3M	CO3	L2

St. John College of Engineering & Management SJCEM PALGHAR

	or
Q4b	During a group project, two students disagree because one doubts the other's intention. Analyze the situation using trust and intention-competence distinction.	3M	CO3	L3
Q5a	Explain co-existence and sustainability in the context of human life and nature.	3M	CO4	L2
	or
Q5b	Analyze how a social reform initiative can promote an Undivided Society and Universal Human Order.	3M	CO4	L3
Q6a	Explain the relationship between ethical conduct, competence and character in professional life.	3M	CO5	L2
	or
Q6b	A professional is asked to ignore an unsafe practice to meet a deadline. Analyze the ethical conflict and suggest a value-based response.	3M	CO5	L3
Q7a	Explain the concept of Universal Human Order and its relevance to holistic living.	3M	CO6	L2
	or
Q7b	Apply the principles of harmony at the levels of Self, Family, Society and Nature to a student's daily life.	3M	CO6	L3